

Financial Results for the Nine Months
Ended December 31, 2015

February 5, 2016

The forward-looking statements and projected figures concerning the future performance of NTT and its subsidiaries and affiliates contained or referred to herein are based on a series of assumptions, projections, estimates, judgments and beliefs of the management of NTT in light of information currently available to it regarding NTT and its subsidiaries and affiliates, the economy and telecommunications industry in Japan and overseas, and other factors. These projections and estimates may be affected by the future business operations of NTT and its subsidiaries and affiliates, the state of the economy in Japan and abroad, possible fluctuations in the securities markets, the pricing of services, the effects of competition, the performance of new products, services and new businesses, changes to laws and regulations affecting the telecommunications industry in Japan and elsewhere, other changes in circumstances that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forecasts contained or referred to herein, as well as other risks included in NTT's most recent Annual Report on Form 20-F and other filings and submissions with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

* "E" in this material represents that the figure is a plan or projection for operation.

 "FY" in this material indicates the fiscal year ending March 31 of the succeeding year.

 "3Q" in this material represents the 9-month period beginning on April 1 and ending on December 31.

FY2015 Contributing Factors by Segment

- : Operating Income reached record levels due to reduced marketing costs, among other factors, despite the continuation of the trend of decreasing Operating Revenues.
- : Operating Revenues increased while Operating Income decreased due to the growth in overseas businesses and anticipatory investments in growing segments.
- : In addition to the Mobile communications services revenues, both Operating Revenues and Operating Income increased due to growth in revenues from the Smart Life area and DOCOMO Hikari, and a decrease in depreciation costs from efficient investment strategies and initiatives to improve cost efficiency.
- : Both Operating Revenues and Operating Income increased as a result of sales growth.
